

Proserv has an extensive brand heritage spanning nearly 60 years

Proserv has evolved significantly over the years, both through organic growth and strategic acquisition, in order to develop our controls expertise. Recent partnerships have further strengthened our move into intelligence solutions and renewables.

proserv

AUTOCON LTD.

2006

Weatherford EP Solutions established after acquiring CAC, Brisco, Autocon and Sicom

2011

Proserv Offshore and Proserv Technology are re-branded to Proserv and acquires Gilmore Valve

2012

Proserv acquires Weatherford EP Solutions
Dron & Dickson acquires Totus Energy

2019

Proserv acquires SGC Metering
Gilmore Valve established as sister division to Proserv and rebrands as Gilmore

2020

Strategic partnerships developed with Intelligent Plant and Synaptec to develop our digital and renewables portfolio

2021

Proserv acquires DDEC LLC - the MEA business of Dron & Dickson

20,000+

Production control systems manufactured

5,000+

Wellhead control systems supplied

40,000+

Sampling cylinders supplied

1,000+

Production control system refurbishments

300+

Subsea control systems installed

700+

Monitoring, control and retrieval projects

